E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The Egyptian government is undergoing political and military change. Egypt will soon have a new President. There will be elections in Egypt that will allow for a younger man to be President. Even though the current President is trying to bring peace to the Middle East, he is out of touch with his own people and they will not allow him to be in power again.

Beirut will soon take action against Israeli land. Beirut will be a sore spot for the Middle East. It seems that countries in the Middle East want peace and are willing to negotiate for it, however Beirut will still continue with heavy terrorist actions. A man by the name of "Mohair" will come to power in Beirut. He is a military man.

Iran is undergoing changes. Iran will have peace. A young man will soon take over the country.

Terrorism will take place on the West Coast (California). The West Coast is the next place that a terrorist action could take place. However, it may be thwarted because of good security procedures. May 9th may be the date.

The situation in Waco, Texas will soon be over. The religious zealot is wearing down. It seems that he will be talked into coming out of the complex.

There will be an oil spill by a large tanker. This will take place on the West Coast. Vancouver, Canada or San Francisco is the location. It seems that others will be a dangerous situation. Quick attention will be given to the situation.

There will not be riots in Los Angeles due to the Rodney King trial.
